

Autumn Ridge

Saturday, October 12th
From 8am - 4pm

Autumn Ridge will again be hosting a communitywide garage sale! Online Ads will be placed to attract more buyers.

By having a semi -annual community sale we can attract more interest and avoid having individual sales throughout the year. Autumn Ridge holds the gates open for a Community Garage Sale in April and October.

No sign up is necessary. Just plan to participate and maybe even trade your own stuff with neighbors!

Important Guidelines and Requirements

Garage or yard sale shall mean any event where items of personal property owned, utilized, or maintained by the occupants of the premises, other than a licensed commercial business, are to be offered for sale to the general public. This shall include garage, patio, and other similar conducted sales. Only the seller's personal property may be sold at a garage or yard sale. New merchandise, items acquired or consigned for the purpose of resale, may not be sold at a garage or yard sale. Garage or yard sales are only allowed on properties owned and permitted residents
